

The TIGER
1860

The Annual Staff of Savannah State College cordially invites you to review and enjoy retrospectively the 1960 Tiger.

ALMA MATER

"WE HAIL THEE S. S. C."

Let us give thanks and praise to Thee,
To our Alma Mater, S. S. C.
Thine honor, pride, and eminence,
We raise in prayerful reverence.

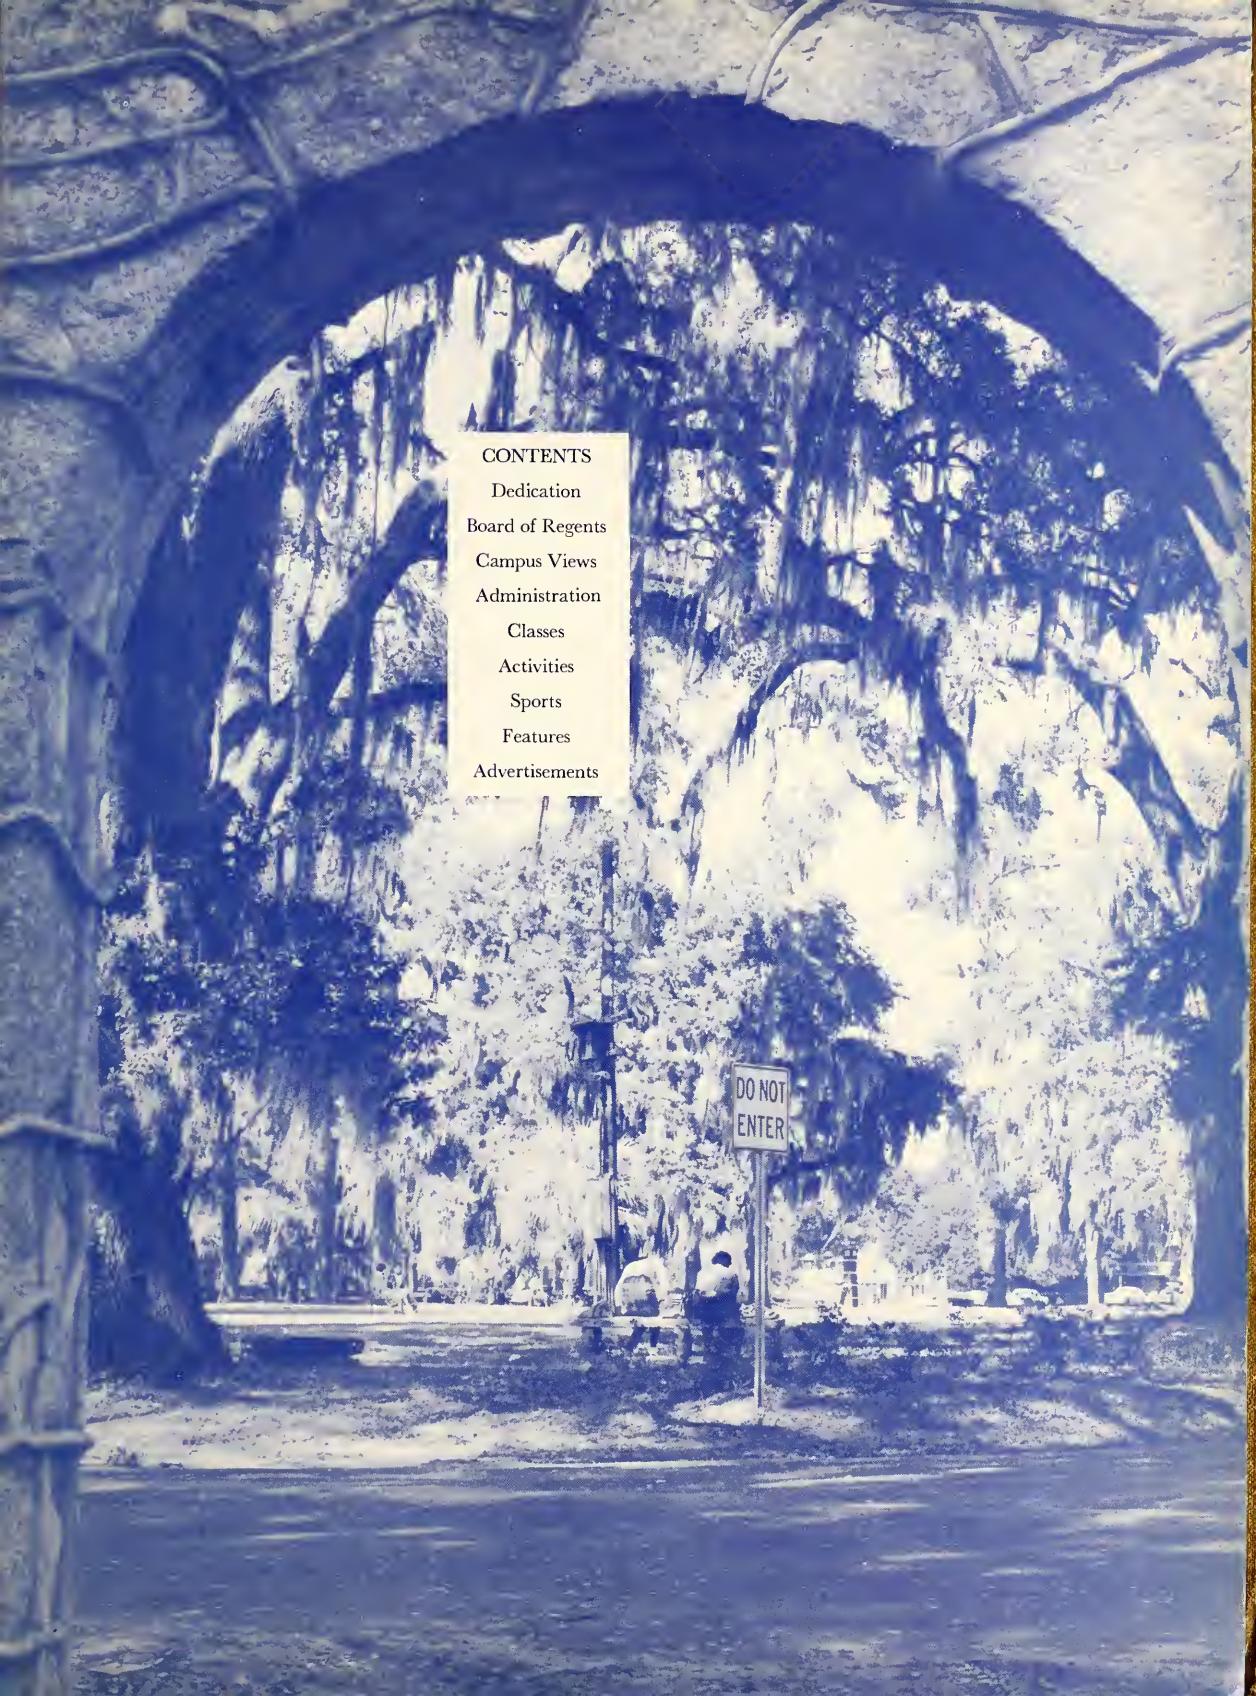

REFRAIN

Where Savannah meets the sea,
Where grassy plains and palms abound,
Where the flow'rs are gems of loveliness,
There S. S. C. is found.
We adore each beauteous scene and hall,
Our all we pledge to Thee!
In our hearts we'll build a shrine for thee,
We hail Thee S. S. C.!

II

Guide us still from day to day,
Be thou mindful lest we lose our way;
Help us know that life, short or long,
Means unceasing work for weak and strong.

A large, sprawling live oak tree with many hanging Spanish moss branches, set against a bright sky.

DEDICATION

Savannah State College has gained much from the seventy-four years of service given by Messrs. J. B. Wright, Assistant Professor of Biology, who gave twelve years of service; Philander S. Moore who served for fifty-one years and Richard Bennett who was employed for eleven years. They gave much of their lives and energy to furthering the philosophy to which the college is dedicated — improving our democratic society through serving the needs of man. Thus it is through the veins of such men that the life blood of the college flows and contributes toward its growth and success.

Therefore, we humbly and gratefully dedicate the 1960 edition of the Tiger to Messrs. Wright, Moore and Bennett.

FOREWORD

It is a privilege to be a part of Savannah State College at any time, but it is an unusual privilege to be a part of it during its transitional period. This Tiger with its many pictures of persons and events, will be for years to come a stimulus and a source of pleasure.

Savannah State College continues to move ahead. It does so in keeping with the finest elements of its years of tradition and service, and with a determination to increase its value to the thousands of young men and women who come to its campus. Time spent at Savannah State College means much more than acquisitions of many facts and the learning of new techniques. As the days are relived through the pages of this Annual it is hoped that not places, people and activities alone will be remembered, but that there be a constant renewal of the Savannah State idealism.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The College Yearbook is an interesting publication. It means a different thing to everyone associated with the college or university. To the members of the editorial staff and advisers, the yearbook brings memories of problems, difficulties, successes, failures, and long hours used in the development of the book. Experiences have been rich and challenging. To the members of the student body and faculty, the yearbook brings together a selected collection from life and learning on the college campus. It affords an opportunity for each individual to relive many phases of college life in a reflective mood. It is stimulating and enjoyable to be a part of a college that is alive and growing. Quality of leadership, cooperative achievement, and learning are indicative of the vigor and strength found in the college. It is my hope that all who may have opportunities to peruse this book will discover evidences of growth.

M. K. Payne, President

DR. PAYNE AND FIRST LADY—MATTIE BEVERLY PAYNE

An educational institution is considered great when it is bound by a union of revered tradition and youthful initiative. This union manifests itself in many forms: in the knowledge imparted by the venerable gray-haired professor to the vulnerable crew-cut collegian; in the legends associated with former students, and in the tales of current collegiate caprices and heroics; and even in the campus landscape where the shadow of a bold modern building is cast upon a proud structure. By this union a heritage is created, a heritage that provides reminiscent consolation for the old, and unshakeable hope for the young. Such is the heritage of Savannah State.

Campus organizations are the most important forms of Social Activity for any student. Through all these organizations the student learns to express himself intelligently and to develop leadership and responsibility. Organizations provide the student with a means of using the leisure time that he has in pleasant and constructive effort.

EDITOR'S NOTE

It's all over now, the anxieties, the fears, the frustration; that feeling — they have all disappeared into the timeless void of the past. And with what have they been replaced? The hundreds of layouts, the hundreds of pictures, the bushel of copy, have all been transformed into what is known as the 1960 TIGER.

It is my privilege to express gratitude to those who assisted with the '60 Tiger.

Indeed, we are indebted to the Adviser, Mr. A. L. Brentson, for his complete cooperation in helping us to meet those almost impossible deadlines. His long hours of toil and labor will always be remembered by the staff when we view our annual.

Heartfelt thanks must go to the students, faculty, and advertisers for all their participation. Last but not least, I will be forever grateful to the entire 1960 Tiger's Staff.

May this annual be long remembered for years to come.
